

Affordable Housing Incentive Program Occupancy Assistance Program

As funding allows, the Affordable Housing Incentive Program (AHIP) is offering one-time Occupancy Assistance to low-income households in need of financial support for the purposes of housing stabilization/eviction prevention or to help them access / move into permanent, affordable housing. Qualifying households may be eligible for up to three months of Occupancy Assistance, which may include any of the following: unit rent (whether arrearages or current rent, but must not to exceed 200% of fair market rent), utility payments (whether arrearages, current, or utility deposits required to initiate service), or security deposit assistance. Funds are limited and available on a first-come, first-serve basis.

INSTRUCTIONS:

Please complete one form per household and include the requested information for all persons in the household. Be sure to include required documentation to process payment (e.g., proof of income, past-due utility bill). The adult head of household must sign and date the form.

You may complete the application in survey format OR upload this completed application along with supporting documentation at:

Nondiscrimination Policy: AHIP's Occupancy Assistance Program prohibits discrimination based on race, color, creed, religion, sex, age, national origin, marital status, sexual orientation, familial status and physical or mental disability.

For us to process your application and issue payment, please submit copies of the following documents with your application:

ALL requests for occupancy assistance must include one of the following proofs of income:

1. Last month of paystubs, 2022 Tax return.

If the tenant / applicant is not categorically eligible, AHIP will require the Tier 1 or Tier 2 partner agency to provide the following documentation of income for all household members.

The Tier 1 or Tier 2 agency may choose between using HUD's definition of "annual income" in 24 CFR 5.609 and using adjusted gross income as defined for purposes of reporting under Internal Revenue Service Form 1040 series for individual federal annual income tax purposes. The method chosen may be different for each applicant.

Annual Income

- The 2020 IRS Form 1040 (i.e., the form used by US taxpayers to file an annual income tax return) for all household members over the age of 18, using the adjusted gross income reported; OR
- Wage statements, pay stubs, IRS Form W-2, IRS Form 1099, and Schedule C if self-employed, interest statements, Form 1099 G, or benefit statements from NHES account if unemployed, and other income proof for all household members. Documentation of more than one month of household income may be used to determine annual household income.

Monthly Income (when only one month of documentation is provided)

- Household members' monthly income as of the date of request for rental assistance.
- The last month of wage statements, pay stubs, interest statements, unemployment benefit statements from NHES account, and other income proof for all household members.
- When relying on monthly income for eligibility, income certification is on valid for a three-month period and must be redetermined for any requests that are more than 90 days after first request for rental or security deposit assistance.

OR

2. Benefits Determination Letter (e.g., SNAP, WIC, TANF) or approval letter for Housing Choice Voucher / state or federally subsidized Rental Assistance Program.

If an applicant's household income has been verified to be at or below 80 percent of the area median income in connection with another local, state, or federal government assistance program, AHIP can rely on a determination letter from the government agency that verified the applicant's household income or for ERA2 their status as a low-income family, provided that the determination for such program was made on or after January 1, 2020. No further income documentation is required when the household is determined to be categorically eligible.

OR

3. Tenant/AHIP Agency Self-Attestation Form

Written self-attestation is permitted as the basis for determining income in circumstances where documentation is not available due to extenuating circumstances including, but not limited to, disabilities, lack of technological access, or lost or unavailable records.

Tier 1 and Tier 2 partner agencies should consider tenants/applicants requesting assistance under these circumstances. Written attestation should be accepted from the tenant/applicant and caseworker or other professional with knowledge of the applicant's circumstances.

Please see additional required documentation for specific requests.

Rent / Security Deposit Requests:

1. Copy of Lease and/or demand for past-due rent with your name and address
2. Copy of lease / demand for security deposit
3. Landlord / Housing Provider's contact information
4. W9 for landlord / Housing Provider. The referring agency should ask your landlord for these documents if you are unable to provide / obtain it.
5. Mailing address for payments and any other payment processing information (e.g., account numbers, name on account).

Requests for Assistance for Utility Bills, Arrears, or Deposits:

1. Copy of current bill and/or past-due bills with your name and address
2. Utility account number, mailing address for payments, and any other payment processing information.
